

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CRG Partners Relocates Headquarters in New York

NEW YORK, September 14– CRG Partners, a leading corporate turnaround and restructuring consultancy, announced today the relocation of its New York-based headquarters. The move to larger premises is in response to the firm’s continued growth and expansion of its professional resources and capabilities.

“I am pleased to announce this important milestone for our firm,” said Michael Epstein, managing partner of CRG Partners. “Clients turn to us because our experienced professionals are dedicated to producing results. Our expansion enhances our ability to support the growing needs of our clients and demonstrates our commitment to the New York market.”

CRG Partners’ headquarters is now located at 477 Madison Avenue.

About CRG Partners:

CRG Partners is a leading provider of financial restructuring and operational improvement services, specializing in creating value for the stakeholders of underperforming companies. CRG Partners offers superior leadership and expertise in the restructuring process, while collaborating with clients' management teams to quickly identify, develop and implement solutions that yield sustainable results. With an international presence and offices throughout the country, CRG Partners is one of the largest turnaround and crisis management firms in the U.S. For more information, call 800-656-5459 or visit www.crgpartners.com.

###