

Corporate restructuring veteran Craig Boucher joins CRG Partners

BETHESDA, MARYLAND, JUNE 3, 2008 - Craig M. Boucher, an accomplished financial advisor and interim executive, has joined CRG Partners as a Partner in the Bethesda, Maryland office.

"We are extremely pleased to have Craig join our team, he is a proven leader who brings a demonstrated record of maximizing value to a wide range of clients," said Scott Avila, a Managing Partner.

With more than 20 years of experience in corporate restructuring and crisis management, Mr. Boucher has worked in numerous industries and has particular expertise in the retail and consumer products industries. During his career, Mr. Boucher has developed and implemented numerous operational restructuring programs, which have substantially increased enterprise value for his clients. He has also served as a trusted advisor to management teams while they were restructuring debt and equity.

Previously, Mr. Boucher served as CFO of Jane & Company LLC, a privately held cosmetic firm with mass-market distribution. Prior to that, Mr. Boucher was a Managing Director of the Interim Management and Corporate Restructuring Division -- Retail/Consumer Products Industry Practice at XRoads Solutions Group.

-- more --

Mr. Boucher holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from New Hampshire

College and is a certified CPA in the state of Maryland.

About CRG Partners: CRG Partners is a leading provider of operational improvement and financial restructuring services specializing in creating value for the stakeholders of underperforming companies. CRG Partners offers superior leadership and expertise of the restructuring process, while collaborating with clients' management teams to quickly identify, develop and implement solutions that yield sustainable results. With an international presence and offices throughout the country, CRG Partners is one of the largest advisory and interim management firms in the U.S. For more information, call 800-656-5459 or visit www.crgpartners.com.

###